

MILE LONG CIRCUS COMES TO TOWN —COUNT IT—MILE

Stupendous Aggregation,
Transported Gorgeously,
Clear From Baraboo.

CHIMPANZEE A BARKER.

Most Human Simian That Ever Simmed Graphically
Describes the Trip.

The circus got in to-day from Baraboo, Wis. There were eighty-seven carloads of it, a train more than a mile long. It came down in three sections from Albany, and the old friends, the elephants, camels, zebras and things were mighty glad to get in.

The giraffes didn't come with the rest of the outfit over the New York Central tracks from Albany. Their necks were too long for the eastern banks tunnels and bridges, so they were shunted to the West Shore and travelled in a separate consignment. Each giraffe had a separate car to himself or herself, built a little bit on the order of a grain elevator, to accommodate their stretch of rubber.

It was a thrilling trip, according to Darwin, the educated chimpanzee. With a slight Garner accent, he gave the human gout a graphic account of it when he arrived at Madison Square Garden in a taxicab this afternoon.

Baraboo Slow for a Chimpanzee.

"We were mighty glad to get out of that town of Baraboo," said Darwin, "after hanging around there all winter. That certainly is the dull berg—no murders, divorces, Black Hands, nor nothing."

It was all right for those pythons and some of those dopy elephants, but it certainly got on my artistic temperament.

"I was a bit seasick, or car sick, or whatever you call it, the first night out, but I got all over it when, at Buffalo, my car caught fire and part of it was burnt up. I had a mighty close call, I tell you; singed my tail and lost some of the hair off my knob."

"But they got me out, all right, and put me in the stateroom with the chief steward. That stateroom wasn't in any animal car, but a regulation sleeper. That's what they call it, anyhow, though it didn't frame up that way for me. He's a pretty decent sort, that steward, but he snore like—well, like a grampus with a bone in his throat."

"I slept a little in the daytime, though, when I wasn't looking out the window and watching the scenery go by. That was fine, that scenery, till something went by like forty explosions, whereupon I took to my bunk and stayed there. They told me it was the Twentieth Century Limited, whatever that is, but I don't want to see any more of 'em in motion. Why, it would have ploughed through a herd of elephants like they were made of air."

Decorated With Irish Color.

"When we finally got in, that steward puts a green coat on me, ties a green ribbon round my neck and then pulls me through a crowd to a green taxicab. What's the steward's name? Hiram, I think."

Darwin, by the way, is billed as "The Missing Link, the Most Human Simian That Ever Simmed." His apartment, where he will hold forth in the garden, is equipped with every modern appliance that goes to make life in a Hamlet flat paradisaical.

He has a little iron bed, a dumbwaiter, steam radiator, canary, cavy, bush buttons, real windows and doors, bureaus and dressers, toilette articles, a bathroom, &c.

Among the circus exhibits today were 40 elephants, canary, cavy, cavy, of fresh and whetness, 60 horses, lions and tigers, bears, wolves, foxes, daddies, dodo birds, pumas, lamas and a few thousand others, including ideas.

Three Victims of Mad Dog Brought Here for Treatment.

MAD DOG'S THREE VICTIMS RUSHED MILES TO HOSPITAL

Bitten Boy and Sisters Brought to Pasteur Institute From Saugerties.

Three children—two girls and a boy—of Mrs. E. P. Cole, of Mount Vernon, near Saugerties, N. Y., were brought to the Pasteur Institute, in this city, to-day for treatment. The boy was bitten last Saturday by a pet maltese terrier which had suddenly developed rabies. His sisters, while assisting him, became infected, it is believed, by the saliva which fell from the dog's mouth.

Mrs. Cole and Dr. John H. De Witt, the health officer at Saugerties, accompanied the children, who are Arthur, thirteen; Nellie, fifteen; and Blanche, seventeen years old. Early treatment will, it is thought, avert the disease.

Last January, a mad dog crossed the Hudson on the ice from Troy, and on the Coles' dog. The pet was carefully treated, but last Saturday night it developed rabies and ran through the house in frenzy.

The boy came in its path and was bitten on the left hand. The sisters heard his screams and dragged off the dog, holding it until a neighbor killed it. Saliva of the dog's mouth covered parts of the girl's hands and thereby infected them. In the morning a physician who was called to the wounds on the boy's hand were transferred and the family left Saugerties on the boat Ulster last night.

Sisters received the infection early this morning, and were once given treatment. This will continue for three weeks.

Dr. De Witt was complimented by the Pasteur experts for his promptness in bringing the children to this city.

The State Agricultural Department has been notified of the cases, and it will investigate the career of several dogs which were bitten by the same mongrel that attacked the Cole dog.

The town is thoroughly alarmed, fearing an epidemic.

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS WEAK?

Thousands of Men and Women Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Nature warns you when the track of health is not clear. Kidney and Bladder trouble compels you to pass water often through the day and get up many times during the night.

Unhealthy kidneys cause lumbar, rheumatism, catarrh of the bladder, pain or dull ache in the back, joints or muscles, at times have headache or indigestion, as time passes you may have a sallow complexion, puffy or dark circles under the eyes, sometimes feel as though you had heart trouble, may have plenty of ambition but no strength, get weak and waste away.

If such conditions are permitted to continue, serious results are sure to follow. Bright's disease, the very worst form of kidney trouble, may still upon you.

Prevalency of Kidney Disease.

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physician, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

A Trial Will Convict Anyone.

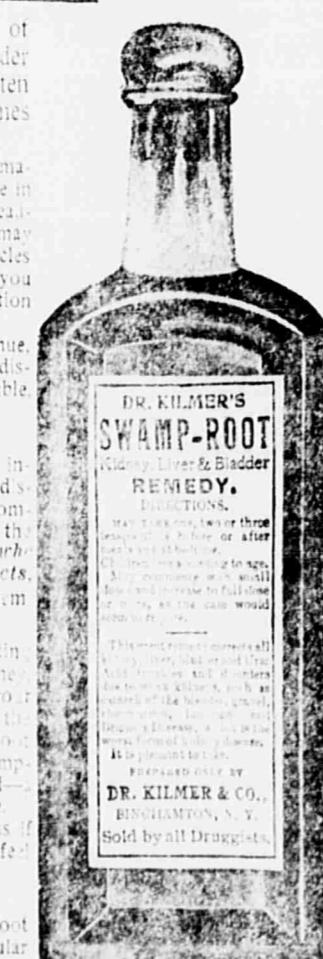

If you are sick, or feeling badly, begin taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy because as soon as your kidneys begin to get better they will help other organs to health. In taking Swamp-Root you afford natural help to Nature, for Swamp-Root is a gentle healing vegetable compound—a physician's prescription for a specific disease.

You cannot get rid of your aches and pains if your kidneys are out of order. You can't feel right when your kidneys are wrong.

Swamp-Root Is Pleasant to Take.

If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at all drug stores. Don't make any mistake, but remember—Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the ad-sign stands a good dress, Binghamton, N. Y., which you will find in every bottle.

SAMPLE BOTTLE FREE—To prove the wonderful merits of Swamp-Root you may have a sample bottle and a book of valuable information both sent absolutely free by mail. The book contains many of the thousands of letters received from men and women who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy they needed. The gross receipts in 1908 fell off to the extent of $2,000,000, the monies paid out for purses and race meetings, only $1,000,000 and exceeded the total gross receipts of the racing associations.

ROOSEVELT WON'T COME TO SEE TAFT

Plans Before Departure for Africa Preclude Meeting with President.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., March 17.—Former President Roosevelt declared to-day that he did not intend to leave Oyster Bay again before Monday next. His decision precludes a meeting with President Taft during the latter's visit to New York to-morrow and Friday, unless Mr. Taft should decide to run to Sagamore Hill. Mr. Roosevelt, on Monday next, will go to Hoboken with Mrs. Roosevelt and his family to visit the steamer Hamburg, on which he is to sail for Naples March 27.

Mr. Roosevelt explained to-day that he had declined the invitation to be present at the Cleveland Memorial exercises at the College of the City of New York to-morrow evening, because he had decided, upon leaving Washington, to attend no public functions before his departure for Africa. He had received hundreds of such invitations, he said, and could not accept one without accepting another.

Former President will to-night say farewell to his brother Masons in Mattoock Lodge in the village. To-morrow he will go with his wife to the "Sisterhood" Neighbors, composed of prominent Republicans who paraded at the White House, the members of whom and who reached there too late to be received by Mr. Roosevelt at the White House, as they had expected.
